Buyer

Niagara-On-The-Lake, ON

Are you an energetic and self-motivated individual with a high drive to succeed? Are you results driven with strong negotiating and decision-making skills? We have an exciting opportunity for a Buyer to join our Purchasing team.

As a Buyer, you will oversee the distribution of merchandise to our outlets. Your strong organizational skills will allow you to successfully maintain inventory stock levels of over 18,000 items and a 98% fill rate.

You possess above average customer service and interpersonal skills, easily establishing and maintaining relationships with current and new vendors. Having a proven track record of success, you are adept at negotiating prices, discounts, credit terms and transportation arrangements with our suppliers. Being methodical with a high attention to detail allows you to generate daily, weekly and monthly reports, and maintain an updated spreadsheet with buyer analysis and vendor price lists.

You have a minimum of 2 years buyer's experience, complimented by a post- secondary education in business, purchasing, marketing or a related program. You are very creative, a great communicator and thrive in a fast-paced team environment.

As a Team Schein member, you will enjoy a competitive compensation and benefits package, combined with a great culture of teamwork, support and a track record of success.
